

Iwate Goodwill Ambassador Report (Winter Edition)

Name	Md Belayet Ali	Place of Residence (country, state/prefecture, municipality) *If you live in Japan, please also write your country of origin.
		Bangladesh, Rajshahi
○About You
• What sort of activities (occupation, study, initiatives, etc) are you involved with currently? Currently I am working as an engineer at an Electronic Device and Storage Corporation.
○About New Year
• Please tell us how New Year is spent where you live. In Tokyo people celebrate New Year different ways, there are Zojo-ji Temple New Year's countdowns, port of Yokohama countdown, experiencing the first sunrise of the New Year, etc.
• Are there any special dishes eaten and/or things you do for New Year where you live? Osechi Ryori, Ozoni, Oshiruko are dishes eaten not only in Kanagawa but also all over Japan.
○About Iwate
• Do you have any memories of Iwate in the winter or New Year? Is there anything (a place, a food) that you particularly remember about winter/New Year? Last year in the winter We had visited Hachimantai; we climbed at the top of the mountain and enjoy skiing. That was a very good memory.
○Please write a message to the people of Iwate.
Iwate is a very beautiful place to live I believe. I always enjoy my time when I was in Iwate. The people of Iwate were very kind and gentle. I would like to thank to the people of Iwate.

★★★Thank you for your cooperation ★★★
